

DEPENDENCIES

1.1 Licenses (Microsoft)

- a) Intune
- b) Office 365 (Online resources and client)
- c) Azure AD Premium (auto enrolment for Intune, Conditional Access)
- d) OneDrive (for automatic user backup of Desktop, Documents and Pictures)
- e) SharePoint (for Office Templates deployment)
- f) Endpoint Manager (as it relates to Intune)

1.2 Permissions

- a) App Registration with full access to
  - (i) Intune via Graph API
  - (ii) Intune Datawarehouse
- b) Access for initial configuration of Intune (GA Account required for certain actions as configuring Mobility (MDM and MAM) tab of Azure Active Directory)
- c) An account with Intune Administrator Role (facilitates ongoing management)

1.3 Resources

- a) Azure subscription (Client Side)
- b) Azure Resource Group (LAPS)
- c) Azure Function App (LAPS)
- d) Azure Key Vault (LAPS)
- a) Azure Storage Account (LAPS)

1.4 License Agreement

The Customer agrees to the terms of the following Third-Party Licences, found on the Microsoft site:

- a) Intune
- b) Office 365 (Online resources and client)
- c) Azure AD Premium (auto-enrolment for Intune, Conditional Access)
- d) OneDrive (for automatic user backup of Desktop, Documents and Pictures)
- e) SharePoint (for Office Templates deployment)
- f) Endpoint Manager (as it relates to Intune)
- g) All applications Device packages and distributes by request of the Customer

1.5 Additional Pre-requisites

- a) primary domain verified on Azure
- b) If using shared network drives with WHfB: Cloud sync needs to be setup for access to network drives to work after WHfB authentication
- c) Certificate based Wi-Fi: A certificate connector is required on the issuing CA server.
- d) Certificate based VPN: A certificate connector is required on the issuing CA server.
- e) Hardware IDs: A CSV file with the hardware IDs that need to be imported into Intune.